

Constitutional Court Ruling No. 13/2562 (2019)

| | |
|--|------------|
| President of the House of Representatives | Applicant |
| - | Respondent |

Constitution, section 172 paragraph one,
Emergency Decree Amending the Promotion of Development and Protection of Family Institutions Act, B.E. 2562 (2019), B.E. 2562 (2019).

Operations in line with the spirit of Promotion of Development and Protection of Family Institutions Act, B.E. 2562 (2019) essentially require readiness of personnel in terms of knowledge, competencies, expertise and experience to prevent any detrimental impact to the system for protection of family institution welfare and to protect victims of domestic violence. The Emergency Decree Amending the Promotion of Development and Protection of Family Institutions Act, B.E. 2562 (2019), B.E. 2562 (2019) was enacted for the purpose of delaying the effective date of such Act and provisionally applying the Protection of Domestic Violence Victims Act, B.E. 2550 (2007). Therefore, the Emergency Decree was enacted for the purpose of preserving national safety and public safety in accordance with the prerequisites stated in section 172 paragraph one of the Constitution.